

THE COLUMBIAN, BLOOMSBURG, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1866.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

SEE advertisement in another column of that popular illustrated paper, Harper's Weekly.

ADVERTISE.—The attention of our patrons is directed to our advertising columns. Those who advertise are liberal minded business men.

WILLIAM L. MADDOK AND CO., dealers in fine groceries, No. 115 South Third Street (opposite the Oliva Building) Philadelphia.

The largest buckwheat crop ever raised in Pennsylvania was harvested this Fall. This is the opinion of agriculturists.

A series of prayer-meetings has been commenced at the Lutheran Church, and another will begin at the Methodist Church to-night.

M. LUCAS M. MOYER has recently returned from Philadelphia with a judiciously-selected stock of drugs, medicines, chemicals, etc. Our readers wishing anything in his line cannot do better than by purchasing of him.

A new book, by the popular author, Mrs. Ann. S. Stephens, entitled "The Soldiers' Orphans," is announced in our advertising columns, T. B. Peterson and Brothers are the publishers, No. 306 Chestnut Street Philadelphia.

We trust all patrons indebted to this office will avail themselves of the opportunity next week to send in that amount of indebtedness, by some one coming to court. The sums for advertising, job work, etc., are small, but they make up the large sum needed to carry on our business.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.—A Complete Pictorial History of the Times." "The best, cheapest, and most successful Family Paper in the Union."

SPLENDIDLY ILLUSTRATED. Critical Notices of the Press. The best Family Paper published in the United States.

The most popular paper in our country—complete in all the departments of an American newspaper, it is a true American paper.

Price, $1.00. The above is in paper cover, or cloth for 2⁵ each.

The above books are for sale at all booksellers.

"The Soldier's Orphans," or any of the other popular books by Mrs. A. S. Stephens, can be had for one-half of price on receipt of price.

Address all orders to the Publishers,

T. B. PETERSON & BROTHERS,

306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

And they will receive immediate attention.

ACCIDENT.—Mrs. Montgomery, of this place, widow of the late Alexander Montgomery, met with quite a serious accident on Wednesday last, by missing her foothold and falling down stairs. In falling she struck her head and shoulders, bruising herself badly. For some twenty-four hours the shock affected her mind, but later information states that she is improving in health. Mrs. M. is quite advanced in years.—Danielle Intelligencer.

TO BE INSTALLED.—On Monday next the Associate Judges elect, Mr. Peter Hughes and Mr. James Curry, will be sworn into office and don the Honorable. They will make good and capable officers. The retiring Associates, Hon. Robert Moore and Hon. Joseph Dean, have always presided with dignity on the bench, and fulfilled their duties to the public in a manner that has met universal approval from all parties.—Danielle Intelligencer.

WINTER is approaching, with its promises of pleasure for the rich, and its burden of suffering for the poor. Let the former give to the latter some of the bounty with which fortune has blessed them, and do all in their power, as they are able, to make those who are more unfortunate than themselves comfortable. Give work to the industrious, and alms to the helpless. Winter is the season that tries men's souls and dispositions, and selfishness and charitable natures are then to be seen undesignated. It is time for good men and good deeds to show themselves.

IT is a well-known fact that a young gentleman ran away with a talented, beautiful, and accomplished young lady of this place. It appears, from admissions made by the young lady, that the young man dressed in such good taste that she could not resist him. But it seems that the young lady's father, who is of a quite practical turn of mind, saw the matter in a different light. The old gentleman has since purchased a suit of clothes at the establishment patronized by the young man, and became convinced, from actual experience, that no lady could withstand the attraction of such elegant clothes. Consequently he sent for the young pair, bestowed upon them his pardon and blessing. It is perhaps superfluous to add that the clothing in question was purchased at the establishment of J. W. Chamberlin.

RE-ARRESTED.—The notorious rowdy, Joe Hale, who was arrested in this place last Fall, charged with passing counterfeit money, rioting, and other crimes, and who broke jail the subsequent January, was re-arrested last Sunday at a farm-house about three miles from town. Sheriff Sheldar, assisted by ex-Sheriff Young and policeman Limerger, effected the arrest. The fellow made a show of resistance when the ribbons were about to be applied to his wrists, but a slight compression of his windpipe by one of the officers persuaded him to be civil. The scamp had been in town the preceding evening, indulging in his usual swagger and bravado. After the next session of Court we judge this community will not be troubled with his presence.—Danielle Intelligencer.

"MY BOY DRUNK!"—"Drunk!—my boy drunk!" and the tears started from the mother's eyes, and she bent her head in unutterable sorrow. In that moment the vision of a useful and an honorable career were destroyed; and one of worthlessness, if not absolute dishonor, presented itself. Well did she know that intemperance walks hand in hand with poverty, shame, and death; and her mother heart was pierced with a sharp pointed steel. Ah, young man! if the holy feeling of love for her who bore you is not dead within you, shun that which gives her pain; adhere to that which gives her joy. If she is with you on earth, she does not, cannot desire to see her son a drunkard; if she is with her Father in Heaven, shun that course of life which shuts the gates of Heaven against you, and debars you from her society forever. The drunkard cannot inherit the kingdom of God.

LEADVILLE THEOLOGICAL

SCHOOL.—The fall term began September 1st, and the school continues until December 1st, and four non-resident professors, and a tutor. The object is to educate young men for the ministry. The course of study is designed for those who have not received a collegiate education. One hundred and sixty dollars a year is the amount required for tuition, and a small sum in special cases. The tuition, use of library and text-books, are free to all. The school was founded by the Rev. Dr. John C. H. Miller, and is now in full operation, and is well supported, but is open to all who believe in the divine mission of Christianity. The library contains a large collection of books, and is well arranged.

An application may be made to Rev. A. A. Liver-more, President of the Board of Instruction, Monteville, Pa.
